

weather and climate

6. what is weather

weather refers to atmospheric conditions at an specific moment

6. what is climate climate refers to the typical atmospheric conditions in an area over along period of time

atmospheric conditions

- temperature
- precipitation
- wind
- atmospheric pressure

factors that influence climate

- latitude
- distance from bodies of water
- altitude

6. the Earth's climate zones

hot (or torrid) climates

- equatorial
- tropical
- desert

temperate climates

- oceanic
- mediterranean
- continental

cold (or frigid) climates

- mountain
- polar

6. climate zones in Spain

Spain has got a variety of climate zones

types:

- oceanic climate
- subtropical climate
- mountain climate
- continental mediterranean climate
- mediterranean climate

6. climate change

the cause of climate change is the increase of waste gases in the atmosphere the consequences of climate change are:

- higher sea levels
- more severe weather
- drought
- extinction

6. climate and natural disasters

some times atmospheric conditions they can be extreme some natural disasters are...:

- strong winds
- torrential rains
- droughts
- high temperatures